Avoid the Fight… Why Early Preemptive Mediation Makes Cents
Friday, October 12, 2012

7:30 am – 9:00 am at: ABC Keystone (135 Shellyland Road, Manheim)

Learn how to recognize the application of early mediation as a method for resolution of a dispute.

Topics:
1) Explanation of mediation and early preemptive mediation
2) The benefits of early preemptive mediation to certain disputes
3) When early preemptive mediation is applicable to a dispute

Early mediation is a dispute resolution mechanism that seeks to avoid potentially expensive and time-consuming litigation by those involved. Some disputes involve issues which can be resolved through mediation early in the process.

The benefits to members of early mediation include:

1) Cost effectiveness -- Depending on the economics of a dispute, mediation early in the process can avoid the high costs often associated with lengthy litigation.
2) Timely resolution -- By mediating early in the process, a resolution can be achieved in a prompt manner.
3) Privacy -- Mediation is a confidential process which maintains the privacy of the parties and the proceedings.
4) Preservation of ongoing relationship -- Early mediation can allow for the parties to maintain their ongoing business relationship.
